OUR SCHOOL

“Lasciate che i piccoli vengano a me” is a preschool (scuola dell’infanzia) of Christian inspiration whose purpose is to promote the development of identity, autonomy, competence and citizenship in children. It offers a bilingual option and operates in conjunction with the "Il Melograno" Nursery (Nido).

EDUCATIONAL APPROACH

The School is structured in heterogeneous classes of small, medium and large children, in terms of age group. It is based on careful pedagogical choices, recognizing different educational strategies and approaches such as the Montessori method, laboratory and cooperative learning, and service learning. Our staff is continuously updated and trained.

SPACES AND ENVIRONMENT

The School’s spaces are divided into centers of interest that stimulate the child to develop the learning foreseen for the three age group. The rooms, which include a large gym and a playground, are large and welcoming, reassuring and stimulating for all children to experience the pleasure of acting and learning.

THE QUALIFYING CHOICES

The School offers a bilingual option through the co-presence of language and English teachers. It has an internal kitchen (in house cook), with a menu prepared by a nutritionist, with a careful choice of different foods. It offers extra-curricular activities (psychomotor skills, music therapy), summer camps, educational meetings for
